

WEATHER.
Saturday, fair and cooler.

DAILY KENTUCKIAN

"GREATER HOPKINS-VILLE WANTS YOU."

Established 1879 Vol. XL--Daily Vol. 1. No. 78

HOPKINSVILLE, KENTUCKY, SATURDAY, JUNE 8, 1918.

Price 3 Cents

EDITORIAL COMMENT

Call 440 if you fail to get the Kentuckian promptly. And if you have a news item, phone it to the same number.

Bottle 'em up, boys. Bottle 'em up.

Gen. Foch made no mistake in putting Americans between the Huns and Paris.

Our American aces will certainly be able to give the German knaves the very deuce.—Bluegrass Clipper.

Nashville is about the only town we know of where rival newspapers still fill their editorial columns with personal controversies and offensive write-ups of each other.

There ought to be a general celebration of Flag Day next Friday, in Hopkinsville. What's the matter with having a big night meeting at Virginia Park?

British official communications for May give a total of 398 German airplanes brought down by British airmen; twenty brought down by anti-aircraft gun fire; 100 enemy machines driven out of control, making a total of 518 airplanes destroyed or damaged. In addition seven observation balloons were destroyed.

PURELY PERSONAL

Mr. Ben T. Perkins, Elkton, father of Mrs. S. Y. Trimble, was in the city yesterday.

Mrs. Ella Manson, of the Pennyroyal apartments, is soon to leave for a visit to her daughter in Chicago for several weeks.

Mrs. T. L. Morrow, of Hattiesburg, Miss., accompanied by her two little daughters, arrived yesterday for a visit of several weeks to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. T. Herndon.

Mrs. H. E. Johnson and daughter, Miss Elizabeth Johnson, are in the city, guests of Mrs. Annie K. Johnson, on Walnut street.

Jack Adoue, of Houston, Tex., is visiting his grandmother, Mrs. Ritchie Burnett.

Dr. and Mrs. J. A. Paine, of Pembroke, have returned from Florida. John P. Thomas has come in off the road for the summer.

Miss Dorothy Eckles has returned from Randolph-Macon College.

Manning Brown is home from Vanderbilt.

OFF TO THE WINDY CITY.

An auto party, consisting of Dr. J. B. Jackson, Mrs. J. B. Jackson, J. B. Jackson, Jr., and Miss Francis Boyd, will leave early this morning for Chicago to be gone a week or ten days. The party will drive through in a car which will require about three days if no stops are made on the way. They expect to visit many of the show places of the city, especially the Lake Front and pier, Lincoln Park, the Field Museum, the Great Lakes Naval Training Station, Marshall Field's Store, etc., etc.

CHAUTAUQUA HOURS CHANGED.

Instead of having the afternoon program at the Chautauqua begin at 2:30 and the evening program at 7:30 p. m. the hours have been changed to 3:30 in the afternoon and 8:15 at night.

Last night program was great and today promises to surpass, if possible, the programs rendered yesterday. Mr. Welbourn should be heard by every boy, if possible, on Wonders of Electricity.

GET 23 PLANES!

(By International News Service.) London, June 7.—Twenty-three German machines were brought down and three balloons were destroyed by the British yesterday. Thirty nine tons of bombs were dropped behind the German lines.

SUBS STOP COAL.

(By International News Service.) Washington, June 7.—Opposing views emanate from Government circles here as to whether German submarines have left American waters. The Fuel Administration has announced that because of the menace of submarines, it has suspended all coastwise shipments of coal to New England.

HUNS CANNOT PROCEED

AMERICANS PUSH ON TO CHEZY AND BAG 200 MORE HUNS

(By International News Service.)

American Army in France, June 7.—American Marines in their second drive against the Germans, together with the French at Marne, in defense of Paris, to-day captured 200 prisoners making a total of 300 in two days and nearly a score of machine guns. The prisoners do not include 160 captured yesterday by the French.

Paris, France, June 7.—The American troops enlarged their gains to-day, progressing as far as the borders of Chezy, the war office announced to-night. Veully-La-Poterie and a Bouresches were captured by them. They also improved their positions on the front between Torcy and Bouresches.

MADE IN GERMANY.

Berlin, June 7.—Southeast of Sarcy, southwest of Rheims, "German troops took the Allied lines both sides of Airdre, with 300 prisoners, the war office to-day announced. A raid in Flanders, west of Kemmel, brought two officers and 59 men as prisoners from the French line. Night reports merely say: "No change in the situation."

PICKING UP MORE.

(By International News Service.)

Washington, June 7.—The American troops again gained ground west and northwest of Chateau-Thierry and took a number of prisoners, according to an official communique from Pershing. Among the prisoners were one officer and 25 unwounded men.

ABSENTEE PICKED UP

SHERIFF CLIBORNE AND DEPUTIES ARREST ALONZO STOKES ON LETTER FROM OFFICIALS.

Sheriff Cliborne and his deputies, Jim Gresham and Ferd Warner, picked up Alonzo Stokes yesterday here in Hopkinsville. Stokes joined the U. S. Army last year, claiming that he volunteered and enlisted with the recruiting officer here. He also claims that he is only 16 years old and that his father, W. L. Stokes, of Ovil, has an application in for Alonzo's discharge.

Stokes was in Camp Shelby and about a month ago procured a leave of absence for two days. He took advantage of this and came home and failed to return. He was hauling lumber into town today when picked up and for a long time contended that his name was Bone and that he never had been in the army. But when asked certain questions by Sheriff Cliborne and others he unthoughtfully made answers that gave his identity away. After hearing a letter read from the commanding officer at Camp Shelby stating that if Stokes would return within a reasonable time he would not be charged as a deserter and that he would be charged only as being absent without leave, Stokes acknowledged that he was the right party and that he would return this morning if permitted without guard.

He has married since his return here to a girl at Allegree.

PERFECT CHILD KILLED.

(By International News Service.)

San Francisco, June 7.—Very proud of a new parrot, four-year-old Naomi Posa, of San Mateo, who a year and a half ago was adjudged "the perfect child" in a contest, started across the street under the protecting shade of her new possession and did not see an oncoming interurban electric car. The car struck the child and killed her instantly.

HUNS CONTROL INDUSTRY

IS CHANGED BY REPRESENTATIVE RAINEY AND INVESTIGATION IS ORDERED.

(By International News Service.)

Washington, June 7.—The platinum industry in the United States has been controlled by Germany since the entry of this country into the war, Representative Rainey, of Illinois, told the House to-day. Efforts to conserve the supply were defeated he charged, by Charles Englehard, of New York, naturalized, but the representative of the German platinum interests. An immediate investigation will be made.

CZAR'S STOLEN JEWELS FOUND

(By International News Service.)

Hoboken, N. J., June 7.—One-sixth of $2,000,000 worth of the former Czar Nicholas Romanoff's jewels, recently smuggled into America were discovered to-day in a New York safe deposit vault leased by the wife of an alleged bogus army lieutenant, reported to be hiding in Sweden after fleeing from Petrograd.

FAIRVIEW STORE BROKEN INTO

The store of Johnson & Barnett at Fairview, was broken into Thursday night, by prizing open a front window. They blew open a safe belonging to J. W. Yancey, the outside door of which was not locked, and stole some old coins kept by Mr. Johnson as relics, worth probably $10. A note for $125 is also missing. About $10 was taken from the cash register. Tools to break into the house with were secured from a near-by blacksmith's shop and from the equipment used by contractors on the Davis Obelisk.

Another rain yesterday.

LURKING SUB GETS ANOTHER STEAMSHIP

NORWEGIAN VESSEL LADEN WITH SUGAR, SUNK OFF NEW JERSEY COAST.

(By International News Service.)

Cape May, N. J., June 7.—Norwegian steamship, Vinland was torpedoed today and sunk by a submarine. Nineteen survivors have been landed here. The Vinland was of steel construction, 1,143 tons, she was laden with sugar bound for England.

LATER.

Norwegian steamer Vinland was bombed and sunk by a submarine 55 miles off the Virginia cape at 6 p. m. June 5, the Navy Department announced to-night. The crew was landed at Cape May, N. J.

CANADIAN PRISONER

GIVES TWO INFORMAL TALKS ON HIS WAR EXPERIENCES.

Sergeant Major Ivan Stanislaus, of the Jewish Overseas Battalion, Canadian Expeditionary forces arrived here Thursday to visit the Sacks family and made a short speech at the Tabernacle exercises of the High School, recounting his war experiences, and also appeared on the opening program of the Chautauqua, informally yesterday afternoon.

He saw twenty-seven months of service on the fighting front in France. He was wounded and sent back home, and he now walks with a cane. He was a prisoner for twenty-nine days in German hands and during this time tubercular germs were injected just back of his right elbow. He is fighting the disease and hopes to overcome it effectually.

Sergt. Major Stanislaus tells of unspeakable acts committed by the Huns against the womanhood of Belgium and France and all other countries overrun by them.

He is traveling through this country under the auspices of the B'Nai Brith Society, the Jewish organization, lecturing on the war and his experiences.

Rev. T. H. Moore has accepted the pastorate of the Nortonville Christian church.

JERE OLEARY IS CHARGED WITH TREASON

(By International News Service.)

New York, June 7.—Jeremiah A. O'Leary, the Irish editor and German sympathizer, and five of his co-plotters, were indicted by the Federal Grand Jury this afternoon for treason.

PREFERS PRISON TO WAR.

(By International News Service.)

Leavenworth, Kan., June 7.—Rather than entrain with his comrades on the selective draft for Camp Funston, Kansas, Charles Davidson confessed that he was guilty of a statutory charge against a twelve-year-old girl.

Davidson has made numerous attempts to evade army service, but they were failures.

"I would rather go to prison than to war," he told the county authorities. He was accommodated.

SEC'Y LANSING KEEPS RINTELEN

MASTER OF THE SPY PLOTTERS AND WARNS GERMANY OF MISTREATMENT.

(By International News Service.) Washington, June 7.—Secretary of State Lansing refused the demand of the German Government for the release by exchange of Captain Frans Von Rintelen, master of the spy plotters. The Germans offered Siegfried Paul London, held in Germany as an American spy. London is of German birth but was naturalized in New York in 1882. Lansing warned Germany that mistreatment of American prisoners would call for reprisals on German prisoners in this country.

PRESS MAN WOUNDED

(By International News Service.)

American Army France in France, June 7.—Floyd Gibbons, war correspondent of the Chicago Tribune, was wounded last night near Chateau-Thierry while inspecting an advance machine gun post. The bullet cut through his eye. He lay on the field three hours before he could be removed to a hospital.

THE HUN ADVANCE IS DEFINITELY CHECKED AT MARNE

132 SOLDIERS 216 CIVILIANS

ARE NOW HELD PRISONERS IN GERMANY.

(By International News Service.)

Washington, June 7.—There are now 132 American soldiers prisoners of war in Germany with 216 civilians, including some sailors, in internment camps, the war office announced this afternoon.

GIRL FINDS POWDER PUFF FULL OF GROUND GLASS.

(By International News Service.)

Albany, N. J., June 7.—A young Albany woman employed in a local department store, looked in a mirror and saw her nose was lamentably in lack of powder. She picked up her powder puff, but her nose went shiny for the remainder of the day. Ground glass was sprinkled in it, she found.

WILSON'S LUCKY NUMBER.

(By International News Service.)

Paris, June 7.—Thirteen German machines were brought down by the French yesterday and four balloons were driven down in flames. Twenty-seven tons of bombs were dropped.

FIRST BATCH OF TRUE BILLS

GRAND JURY REPORTS BUT IS STILL AT WORK.

The Grand jury yesterday returned its first batch of indictments, including the following:

Jas. DeBow, wilful murder in killing Jackson Willis with a knife. Beattie Radford, malicious cutting. William Dulin, grand larceny. Wilson Pitt, grand larceny. Roy Overton, carrying a concealed deadly weapon.

Ed Summers, carrying a concealed deadly weapon.

Ben Adams and Leslie Grant, grand larceny.

Allie Mullin and Oggie Dattilo, grand larceny.

Will Hooser and Jim Whitlock, robbery.

The trial of DeBow was set for June 17th.

Two commonwealth cases were tried. Will Smith, charged with robbery, entered a plea of guilty and got one year. Frank Martin, carrying a concealed deadly weapon was fined $50 and disfranchised.

KOPPEL STORE OPENS TO-DAY

A new and handsome business house will have its formal opening today, when the Koppel Cloak Co. will throw open the doors of its new store of ladies' ready to wear. The interior of the Boales building has been remodeled and beautified and the exterior re-arranged and painted most attractively. It is filled with the season's goods to please the ladies and Mr. George Koppel and a corps of competent salespeople will welcome the public.

Fill in the "oldest building" coupons and send them to the Kentuckian. If you failed to see the coupon the other day, lookout for another in Sunday's paper.

(By International News Service.)

London, June 7.—To-night's report from Field Marshal Haig says "The French improved their lines at Loere, Flanders, this morning and captured a few prisoners. We raided the German line near Strazeele this morning, taking nine prisoners and a machine gun. We suffered no casualties. Otherwise there is only artillery activity to report."

The German drive toward Paris is definitely checked, although the general situation gives no less cause for anxiety. None of Crown Prince Rupprecht's reserves have been thrown into the latest German offensive. The Austrian offensive in Italy is expected momentarily.

(By International News Service.)

Washington, June 7.—Seventy-one ships, totaling 344,450 tons, were launched during May.

FOLLOWING THE FLAG

(By International News Service.)

Henry Eager, of the 34th Infantry, Ft. Bliss, Tex., has been promoted to a First Lieutenant.

Capt. Clay Tichenor has been promoted to Adjutant. He is now at Ft. Worth.

Ernest Harold Clark, son of C. E. Clark, now of Chicago, has entered the Naval Training School, at Annapolis, as an ensign.

McHenry Tichenor left last night for Ft. Worth, Tex., to enter the motor cycle corps of the army. He is a volunteer under 21.

Jas. L. Wahl, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Jas. L. Wahl, of Princeton, has entered West Point as a Cadet. Mr. Wahl was a citizen of Hopkinsville about 30 years ago.

Cyrus Williamson, Vernon Pepper, Louis Klein and Malcolm Quarles are four of the Hopkinsville boys who are probably on the sea now, enroute to Europe.

John Metcalfe, Jr., and Alfred K. Johnson have registered with the Local Board, under the call for volunteers for limited service men to work in the spruce forests, signifying their willingness and readiness to go if this county is called upon to furnish a quota.

Hugh Nelson, who went to Washington recently and volunteered as engineer in the U. S. Army, received a telegram last night ordering him to Newport News and appointing him Second Lieutenant in the Engineering Corps. He left yesterday afternoon at 5:42 over the L. & N. railroad.

Cards were received yesterday by members of their families stating that Lieut. R. Herndon Walker and Wesley Dalton had arrived safely overseas.

Malcolm Gossett leaves today for Annapolis, Md., where he will enter the Naval Academy under appointment from Congressman Kincheloe.

Vernon Pepper is in New York state on his way to France.

Mrs. James Bresthitt, Jr., received a wire from her husband Thursday evening that he had been examined and accepted for service in the Naval aviation corps with the rank of chief quartermaster. Mr. Bresthitt expects to arrive home Sunday wind up his personal affairs and port for duty June 24.

Ernest West and Ashly D. Kemp have volunteered under No. 630 for 5 class one men to Terra Haute June 15 to take training at government expense for service at the front and behind the lines. Three others will be selected to make out the number called.

Anderson county registered 16 white and 32 colored.

Paducah's bank clearings for May were $8,886,677.

Members of the United States Marine Corps in France sending messages to comrades.